

Heading into the Singularity

This has many interpretations, the point of no return, the event horizon, the merging of all things until there is no separation.

The Convergence of Timelines

Last year I spoke about the convergence of all the timelines coming together in an article on the Star Teachings Protocol website

<https://starteachingsprotocol.com/convergence/>

The point of the article was to make people aware that one narrative meets another narrative, and they either destructively interfere and cancel themselves out, or they converge to constructively interfere and magnify each other. So for example the “My Body, My Choice” people who believe in the sanctity of their bodies and the right to choose what medical intervention they have, or to have children or not etc, were duped by state and social propaganda into fear of the “Covid virus” thereby into taking a swab for symptoms that were not there. The end result was that they compromised their immune systems and became unwell.

Psy-Ops

Many psychological operations are being played out at the moment, because we are in a large depopulation scale coordinated event that uses fear and repetition, brainwashing through the media and religions, and social engineering. Many people are still duped by the system we call the Matrix or Cabal. What is thought to be mainstream society is actually a set of cages with pretty façades to trap and harvest humanity.

Work Tokens

Think about it, all our lives we work, work for who? The money we make doesn't all go to us and the majority of it goes to our employer in terms of earnings and profits. Work is just basically a tokenised form of slavery, where the slave is given tokens to keep them buying stuff to keep them alive to work another shift.

Who are you working for? And who are your bosses and the company, business, corporation or organisation working for?? Do you really know?

Many of these corporations we discover are not altruistic and trade their stock on the markets and invest into weapons manufacturers or pharmaceutical companies that harm people over profits. So many big corporations are immoral and unethical but playing the opposite to the public and in retail.

And what happens with all that "money" earnings and profits, where does it go and what does it feed and where is it invested?

So, humanity is controlled, its perception is managed and most of humanity are completely unaware, being in that hypnotic trance. So are willing to facilitate their own demise and believe that is not true.

Every Arena

Every arena or strata, every level of modern society is being turned upside down. Every paradigm you once held true is breaking and many people who relied on the comfort of that false reality programmed into them at birth, will be having a tough time right now.

Your reality was programmed into you

The government created an education system that indoctrinated all of those who came through the state education system. We were taught to believe in a certain way in which society works and what goes on in our reality. We were also hypnotised to see reality through a certain mental filter.

Mental filters change your Perception

Mental filters alter your perception. What you can understand with your mind you are able to see in the reality. It's not what you see first that then makes you understand. It's what the mind can accept that allows the eyes to perceive it after. So, examples of this:

Royal British Legion

Poppy Appeal- the poppy is a hidden cabal symbol for a bullet wound. It is not just the flower that grew on the battlefields. So, it has a darker symbolism of death by those that are in death worship cults.

The National Lottery

The logo is of a blue hand smiling with its fingers crossed. We cross our fingers in hope or when we are wishing for something positive. But the other esoteric darker side of the logo represents a “Pax” which is breaking an agreement or making an agreement with others in secret. We cross our fingers behind our backs when we don’t agree to something in secret but publicly show the opposite that we agree. So being deceptive.

Minions movies

The Minions Movies where those little yellow comedy figures that help “the main bad guy” as his workers for example. They are representing you the public audience that pays your money to watch these movies. The yellow figures are the ones being experimented on and the movie is harvesting you laughing at little yellow representations of you. People don’t get it yet that they are the minions of the controllers who make the spells, better known as movies.

These are just some examples of reality being presented in one form and the other darker aspect to that thing in your realities that is hidden from your awareness.

Everything of Prominence

Is artificially rigged to be there. All the luxury companies, the high fashion the retail corporations and brands, the media influencers, the news and social media trends. These are all artificially generated socially engineered tools to control society and humanity by also controlling how we think and thus how we perceive reality, as it is subjective. So, installing the same programs through the education system helps to keep that controlled perception collectively agreed by the hypnotised and brainwashed populations. You come to realise that everyone who became famous whatever it was, has been artificially promoted and controlled to be in that position. Individual people almost never come to fame or popularity, or the job title, or the position, without the cabal steering their careers behind the scenes with hidden contracts or pacts.

Confusion & Shock

Politics is a shambles. It’s clear that the system is flawed and corrupt, so no politician is independent or actually working on behalf of the people. Despite what they say, they are still using a corrupt system of slavery mechanisms and still working for their own agendas. This is obvious to a few and not believable by most. Yet here we are. The voting system is rigged, and all the candidates are controlled. That is not a democracy, it is an enforced fake reality, and part of the outrage, conflict, confusion and shock is the injury and depression and suicide. The assisted dying bills and inclusion of non-terminal illness, all part of the depopulation.

The Mind Melt

This is all designed to bring confusion to those who have not managed to grasp a more accurate form of reality based on their own independent observations and learning, rather than the brainwashed version taught through state education and academia.

The Singularity

When people cannot tell fact from fiction, when Allopathic medicine harms more than it heals. When evil people are idolised as good people, when people say one thing and do another. When the state turns against its people. When moral and ethics are considered dangerous and far right. There are a million ways in which all things are merging and becoming part of another thing.

Take ai and robotics, soon it will be AGI and the complete outsourcing of any human cognition or physical process will be replaced by artificial alternatives.

Science & Spirituality have merged into quantum physics over classical physics, and new exploration of consciousness.

Women are no longer disempowered in western society and the workplace, whereas men are being demonised and degraded. This is to divide the genders against each other. Stonewall and the feminist movements are at conflict with each other.

Governments

Your government has been harvesting you and your family for generations. They are also starting to convert analogue systems and all other systems into one ledger through ai and the data centres. They are installing the IOT (internet of things) connecting SMART technology to talk and communicate with other devices and systems, and IOB (internet of bodies) which is the tracking and monitoring of your injected biometric data. Not only is your biometric data worth money and being traded but also it's a 2-way system where you can be made to do certain things by remote monitoring and control, induce emotions and thoughts and can also be terminated through technology.

Clones

Not only are there hybrid humans who do and don't know they are, but there are also clones of people who don't know they are. Not only this but with the AI takeover, people are thinking it's a great idea to clone themselves as an AI clone and use their clone to pretend to be them. Which of course adds to the fog of what is real and what is computer generated.

Data Centres

Have been given priority over human life, nature and the environment. Sucking up vast amounts of water to cool the processors and equipment that processes all the data on the web. These are controlled by the ai tech industry that are Satan worshippers and have no care for humanity. These CEOs are hybridised to fulfil their task of introducing artificial intelligence. Just as the hypnotic trance inducing effect on humans was hidden about the technology of television, so too is the knowledge that far more advanced ai is being used that did not originate on earth or from humans.

5 & 6G

These are electronic energy weapons that have been urbanised and installed throughout various countries. Monitoring and tracking, but also with the advance of technology such as encephalopathy (reading brainwaves) to a much greater sensitivity. The technology is able to recognise mood, non-verbal cues, body posture and other markers to detect the mindset of the individual. (IOB & IOT) Internal monitoring as part of that surveillance infrastructure.

Remote Neural Monitoring

Think while you still can, your own thoughts. Do not accept remote neural monitoring. It's in your phone, it's in urban infrastructure. Time to remove the slavery tech.

Inevitable Collapse

This system of human slavery cannot sustain itself because too many people are waking up to who is doing it and rejecting the tyranny of their controllers. The real skill for humanity is to work out who is doing all the brainwashing and manipulation in secret by calling out the ones who use the playbook against humanity

Final Challenge

Is YOU!

The final challenge is how you will cope with all these changes in humanity. Whether you have a good support network and local communities that have organised their food and supply chains, and social care systems. The collapse of the social fabric, economy and western culture is being implemented to bring about more control of humanity or no control over humanity. It's up to each of us individually and as a collective to choose what future we want, one where you are a slave, or a future where you are free and have removed the ones who would wish us as slaves.
